

correspondence from a Mr. Albert Allen to a Mr. Frederick Mather and some of the wonderfully produced illustrations deal with contested political issues of the time, including the use of Chinese labor in South Africa, while another takes a pointed shot at the two major parties, mocking the likeness between them plus a magnificent, highly detailed example of Women's Suffrage voting rights, etc. A remarkable, historic assemblage of great beauty and purpose, which reflects on some of the most significant issues in British politics at the turn of the last century (See Ebay No. 351926931517 for illustrations).....£1950.00
