2017 88th Scottish Congress Variations – Due to technical and operational difficulties Dealers' pre-orders were not available for collection at the show (Machine B001) and consequently were paid for at the exhibition but had to be posted from Tallents House in Edinburgh. After deliveries, we made it was noticed that not only did the inscription (including '2017') differ from those available at the show (which should have had '2017' but didn't) that it was noticed that the Machin strips which should have been the old design (one colour) were the new 50th Anniversary edition which doesn't come out until June! Limited quantities of all are available. First come, first served.
